Special AUT Council 2005

Following the receipt of a request from 25 members of council, notice is given that a special meeting of AUT council will be held on Thursday 26 May 2005 in central London.

The sole business of this special council meeting will be to have a full debate on proposals to boycott Israeli universities.

Time & location

The special council meeting will be held in the Large Hall at Friends House, 173 Euston Road, London NW1 2BJ, commencing at 11.30am and ending not later than 4.00pm.

Please note

The AUT has taken legal advice on matters relating to the meeting of its special Council on 26 May. Arising from that, AUT's national executive decided yesterday that the special Council should be a closed session and therefore open to members only. The union will issue a further statement following the special Council.

Submission of amendments to motions by local associations

Amendments to motions for this council meeting should be received at Egmont House by 5pm on Monday 23 May.

The council agenda committee will meet prior to the special council meeting and their report will be circulated to delegates on their arrival at the meeting.

Motions should be approved by a local association general meeting or in accordance with another provision set out in a local association's local rules. A copy of the form for the purpose of submitting council motions is included in circular LA7629.

Alternatively, amendments can be submitted by e-mail to Catherine Wilkinson from the contact e-mail address that is held by head office for the local association secretary.

Receipt of all amendments will be acknowledged; if you do not receive an acknowledgement before the deadline, please contact Catherine Wilkinson at head office.
